

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

My time at home is peaceful and less stressed without interruptions from telemarketers.

Indiana's law has been very effective. I now receive only 1-2 calls/mo vs. 3-4/day before the law was enacted.

Thank you for your time.